CYCLADIC TRINITY , MYKONOS

BEACH VICINITY

Cycladic Trinity is a private property enjoying an elevated position in the area of Agios Ioannis. It owes its name to the simple fact that from some of the indoor and outdoor spaces guests are able to overlooking three different bays: Agios Ioannis (the closest of the three), Ornos and Korfos. The position grants a mix of panoramic views and privacy, despite the marginal distance from the beach and Mykonos Town.

Living areas can be found on both sides of the property when it comes to outdoor spaces. The front terrace is home to the villa's private pool, surrounded by cozy loungers and overlooking the beautiful scenery Agios Ioannis is well known for ? the islands of Delos and Rhenia as well as the unique sunsets. The back terrace hosts the outdoor dining area, aptly furnished for convivial moments. Both front and back find shelter from the summer winds with discrete glass paneling that allow full enjoyment even when Aeolos is blowing with all his might. The bright tones used indoors give a vibrant mood to the property, the living room, kitchen and master bedroom being white literally floor to ceiling. The brightness is cleverly interrupted though, darker-colored or off-white furniture have been blended in, along with wooden surfaces. The property stretches vertically for three floors. The entrance one hosts the living areas while the spacious master bedroom takes up the entire upper level. Four more charming and well-appointed bedrooms are found on the lower level, some featuring a private entrance for added privacy. Cycladic Trinity has all the right features for guests that enjoy a fresh yet traditional style, thoughtfully laid-out in one of the most panoramic locations on Mykonos and within reasonable distance from some of its main places to be.
