APARTMENT HEIDI , ZERMATT

TRADITIONAL CHALET RECENTLY RENOVATED

Heidi is a first floor apartment located in Haus Bittel in the very heart of Zermatt. Comprising the entire first floor (128 m2) of a traditional, creaky, wooden, Swiss chalet, this is a delightful luxury chalet apartment which has just been refurbished: a real Zermatt gem sleeping up to 6 people. A great deal of attention has gone into enhancing its old alpine atmosphere while providing every modern convenience and a sense of cozy luxury. You will be cosseted by weathered wood paneling and local granite walls, an antique stone fire-stove (with a modern glass door), wooden ceiling beams (with spotlights), a unique dining table consisting of a traditional harrow under a glass top, a generously sized new and fully specified connecting kitchen, and much more.

There are three quaint bedrooms and three very modern bathrooms. Bedroom 1 (the largest) has a standard double bed and en-suite bathroom with shower and toilet. Bedroom 2 can be configured either as a double or as two singles. Its bathroom is next door, with shower and toilet. Bedroom 3 is the smallest, with a 160cm double bed, but it has the advantage of having the largest en-suite bathroom with corner-bath, rainfall shower and toilet. You should be aware that these two bedrooms are small; however their interior design is charming, giving one the feeling of snuggling down in a cozy mountain cabin.
